Warm rice cakes can be made and eaten instantly and conveniently with this product and it is a gluten-free, healthy product that anyone can consume. The flavor and taste of Seolgi rice cake is brought out by the domestic glutinous rice that is used as the main ingredient. It retains its chewiness even after being cooled, and the texture is almost similar to that of regular rice cake. The product consists of a 55g packet powder, a water measuring cup and a wooden stick, and has undergone gluten-free testing.
